Hi Tony,

We did receive your package for the Wellington Bond increase and it has been approved/accepted by our Division director - effective October 27, 2008.

We did not issue an official approval letter - however, I have attached a copy of the entire package with the Director's signature approving/accepting the bond increase.

I hope this will suffice for your needs. Please let me know if you need anything else.

Thank you,
Angela

Hi Angela,

I'm following up with you from correspondence we had back in October 2008 (see below).

In accordance with your guidance, I submitted the required paperwork with the State of Utah to increase the "Reclamation Bond" for our Nevada Electric Investment Company (NEICO) located in Wellington, UT.

At your request at the time, I forwarded the paperwork to your attention in a package dated October 21, 2008 (see attached).

It is my understanding that the State of Utah has to approve our proposed bond increase.

To date, we have not received any correspondence back from the State of Utah - can you please confirm your receipt of my package and/or the status of the State of Utah approval?

On the other hand, if the State of Utah has already issued its approval via a separate correspondence, please provide me with a duplicate copy or let me know who it was mailed to and I will inquire accordingly.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please feel free to contact me at the number provided below.

Please Note - Nevada Power Company is now doing business as NV Energy. NEICO is a subsidiary of NV Energy.

Thank You

Thank You Angela.....

One more question -- our new bond was actually signed back on March 7, 008. Can all the Exhibit signed forms be back dated to March 7th or is the current date acceptable? Please advise.

Hi Tony,

You can address all bonding paperwork to me. Just for clarification - we need the following documents to complete the bond increase paperwork for the Wellington Prep Plant:

Exhibit D - Stipulation to Revise Reclamation Agreement.

Exhibit A - Permit Area (*this only needs to be completed if there is a change in the disturbed acreage)

Exhibit B - Bonding Agreement (or a rider to the original bonding agreement)

Affidavits of Qualification for the Permittee and the Surety Company.

If you have questions, please feel free to contact me.

Thanks you,
Angela Nance

Hi Angela,

I am following up on an e-mail sent to me by our Resident Agent, Mr. Patrick Collins (see below).

We need to submit the appropriate paperwork to the DOGM to increase our Reclamation Bond for the Wellington property and I would like to know who at DOGM I need to address the paperwork to - can you please help? Thx.

Hi Patrick,

I got your voicemail and I spoke with Wayne Western to get more clarification. It sounds like you are increasing your bond. Please provide us with the rider for the bond increase and the Exhibit D - Stipulation to Revise the Reclamation Agreement. You will need a Power of Attorney with the rider. Also, please fill out the Affidavits of Qualification for the surety and the company. All the documents are attached.

Thanks!

Angela
